High school is over.....

As graduation approached, it seemed impossible that the happy days in NHS were drawing to a close. Feelings of joy and accomplishment were mingled with sadness, for we hated to leave wonderful memories and friends.

Our sophomore year we began to realize the role we had to fulfill as active members of the student body.

As juniors we presented "Peg O' My Heart," appropriately on Valentine's Day, and in the spring honored the seniors of '57 with the reception and prom.

During our senior year the bonds of friendship grew stronger. As we moved into the hallowed grounds, "Senior Alley," we realized this was our last year and set out to make it our best. With this goal in mind, we made our class play, "Out of The Frying Pan," a success. The year sped quickly by with WPA week, the skating party, junior-senior events, and the beloved senior banquet, reception and prom. Then the final stop...graduation.

Yes, our days in Newton High are over, but we, the class of '58, shall relive its memories time and time again.

Contractors Submit Bids For New Junior High

By James Graber
Every item of the plans for the new junior high school to be built in the southeast part of town in the near future is under scrutiny, as the Newton Board of Education considers awarding the contracts for its construction.

On November 14, bids were submitted by nine contractors for various parts of the total construction project. Since then, the entire program has been studied for less expensive and better ways of attaining the desired goals.

The new school, a complex of five buildings, designed to accommodate 1,200 students, will be located on First Street east of the city limits.

"Amahl" was chosen for presentation by Miss Voth's vocal students as a highlight for the Christmas season. The composer, Gian Carlo Menotti, has described it as a children's Christmas opera. However, "Amahl" has been enjoyed by listeners of all ages. It was first presented on television on Christmas Eve, 1951.

Sophomores Give Annual Assembly

anny Deadpan's Talent Show was the theme of the sophomore class assembly held on November 22 in Lindley Hall.anny Deadpan was portrayed by Vernon Smith, rocking and smoking a corn cob pipe.

Jon Neary, master of ceremonies, introduced the numbers on the program and added a few choice bits of gossip here and there. The Continentals, a Latin combo featuring Marino Lujano, Steve Terrones, John Solis, Monty Martinez, Albert Martinez and Tino Monarez played two numbers "My Little Girl" and "Cha Cha Cha."

Killfool played his guitar and sang "Singin' the Blues" and "Silver Sands." The group also sang "My Baby Don't Love Me" and "Shake Me, I Rattle."

The pantomimed by Delome S. and Joyce Klassen. Susan Cain presented a humorous advertisement written by Gene Schmidt. "Little Red Riding Hood" was the title of a humorous reading given by Kay Kaiser. The last number on the program was Nancy Blosser singing "Saint Louis Blues" and "There'll Be Some Changes Made."

The script was written by Miriam Werner, Celia Vogt, Evelyn Voth, Nancy Blosser and Bob Tieszen. The idea for the program was originated by Gene Schmidt.

The annual Thanksgiving assembly was sponsored this morning by the student council in the junior high auditorium. The Rev. Charles Strickler led in the devotion. Following this, a short play was performed on the question of extracurricular activities in relation to studies. Taking part in the play were Duane Martens, McKanna, Bruce Day, Mel Minnis, Martin Myers and Judy consisting of Rev. Alden Allbaugh, faculty advisor, Mrs. Edwin Grace, Lor Richter, Kay Rogers and Joyce Klassen, with Bruce Lyon acting as moderator, discussed problems presented by the play.

The pep club cheered the teams on to victories and gave them equal support in defeat. In their white blouses and black skirts, they formed a giant megaphone through which the football team ran onto the field. Girls wearing black sweaters made an "N" in the midst of the club's section at basketball games. Members acquired black and gold felt emblems this year for the first time. A "Person to Person" skit was the highlight of the club's annual assembly program.

Y-Teens and Hi-Y

The Y-Teens and Hi-Y pursued their purposes of providing student Christian fellowship and service to the school. In addition to meeting either in general assemblies or in committee groups each week, the organizations had as a main activity the operating of a concession stand at home football games. They contributed their funds, their time, and other gifts to charitable groups. In the spring, the Y-Teens entertained the Hi-Y at a party.

Peg O' My Heart

In their junior year, members of the class of '58 presented the story of "love's young dream" in their junior play, "Peg 'O My Heart", the classic romantic comedy which told of the life and loves of Peg, the alluring Irish lass. The play, which was appropriately presented on Valentines Day, was directed by Miss Kathleen Shields. The cast included Pat Speir, Jolene Dillman, Carole Grace, Karen Stanley, John Suderman, Rodger Waters, David Graybill, Loren Richter, and Mel Minnis.

Out of the Frying Pan

Is persistence the only way to achieve success? The senior class play, "Out of the Frying Pan", presented on November 22, 1957, portrayed the amusing incidents along the road to fame in the lives of six young people, three boys and three girls, who had banded together for financial reasons and were sharing the same apartment while seeking recognition as actors and actresses. The cast included; David Graybill, Larry White, Carole Grace, John Suderman, Jolene Dillman, Karen Staley, Ann McFarlane, Gerri Holmes, Rodger Waters, Loren Richter, Dayl Kaiser, and Mel Minnis. Sally O'Bryan was stage manager. The play was directed by Tom Beattie, dramatics instructor.

Spanish Club

Nancy Blosser served as president of the Spanish Club this year. Other officers were Kay Kaiser, Secretary, and Anthony Epp, Treasurer. This group, sponsored by Miss Olive Anderson, learned to speak Spanish more informally, played Spanish games, and gained more knowledge of Spanish-speaking people and their customs.

French Club

This year's French Club decided at the beginning of the year that because they were few in number that they would hold their meetings in the homes of members instead of at school. Club officers were DeLome Stutsman, President; Marcy Welsh, Treasurer; and Pat Becraft, Secretary. Miss Olive Anderson was sponsor.

Art Club

The Art Club, sponsored by Miss Marie Orr, offered students opportunity to increase their appreciation of various types of art work. Members also made their talents available through the Art Service Committee, a group which did art work needed by other school groups.

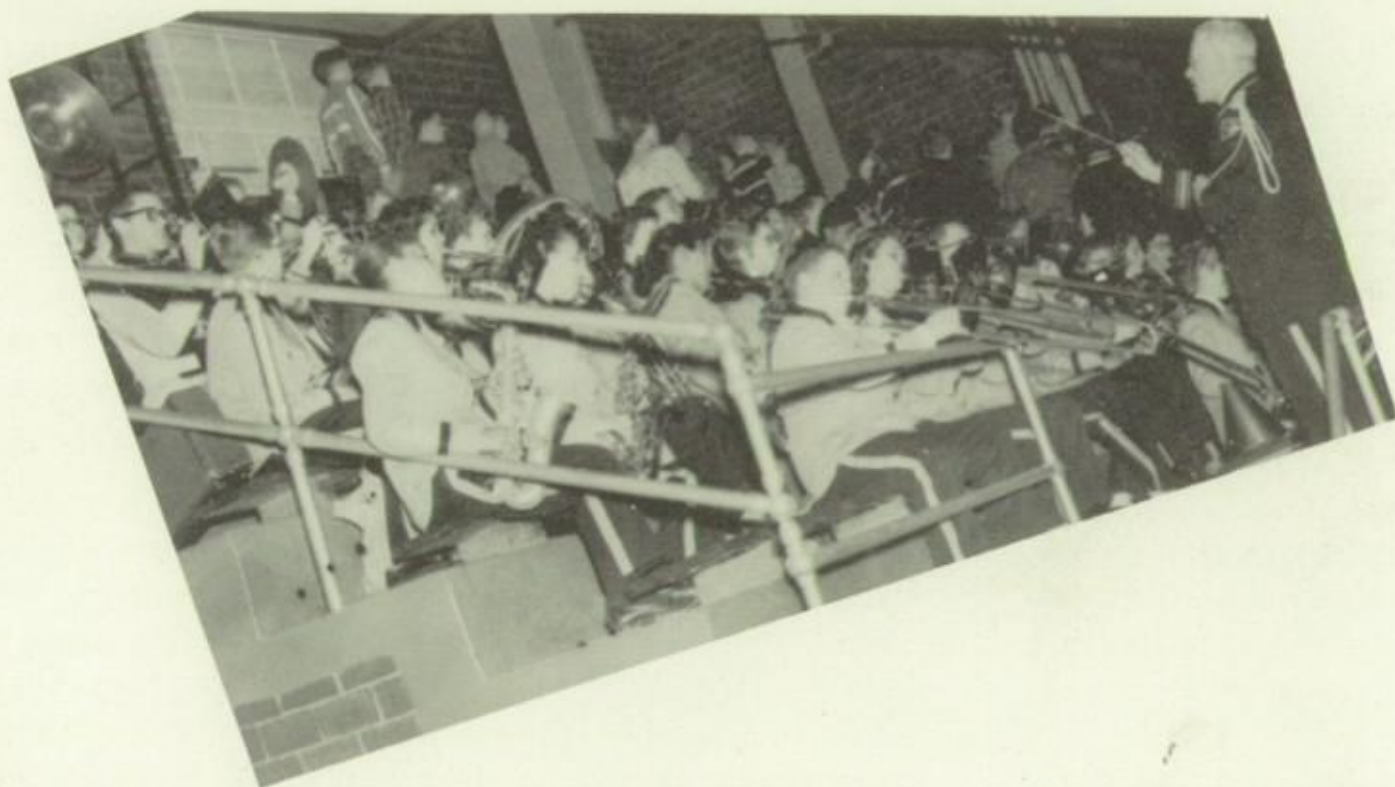

FFA

FFA had a membership of 45 boys this year. Officers included Donnie Gronau, President; Bruce Sadowsky, Vice-President; Byron Winans, Secretary; Ronnie Krehbiel, Treasurer; Jim Hamilton, Reporter; and Doug Inghram, Sentinel. Starting in February, judging teams competed in district crops, poultry, dairy, and livestock contests. The climax was the trip to the state contests at Kansas State College.

Band and Orchestra

The annual trip to the Hutchinson State Fair, appearing at the Band Day at KSTC, Emporia, and returning to Hutchinson for the basketball game at the Sports Arena were among the highlights of the year for the 85-piece Railroader band, directed by E.S. Sanderson. The band added color to home football and basketball games and to pep assemblies. The 70-member orchestra, directed by Mr. Sanderson, assisted by Miss Janis Rollow, joined with the band and vocal groups to present programs at Wellington High and Wichita University. The orchestra performed at the annual Christmas musical program and at the spring all-instrumental concert.

The Newton debate squad had another very successful season, under the guidance and leadership of Mrs. Alma Moore.

Ten trophies were won, seven of them first place awards. This is the highest total of debate trophies won by any school in the state during the season.

The subject being debated this year was "Resolved: That the United States direct economic aid to individual countries should be limited to technical assistance and disaster relief".

The season was completed by the debaters' winning first place at the district, then traveling on to the state tournament where they placed fourth.

Football

The 1957 Railer football squad lacked size, depth, and experience. To some observers in the early part of the season, the team also lacked another gridiron necessity--confidence.

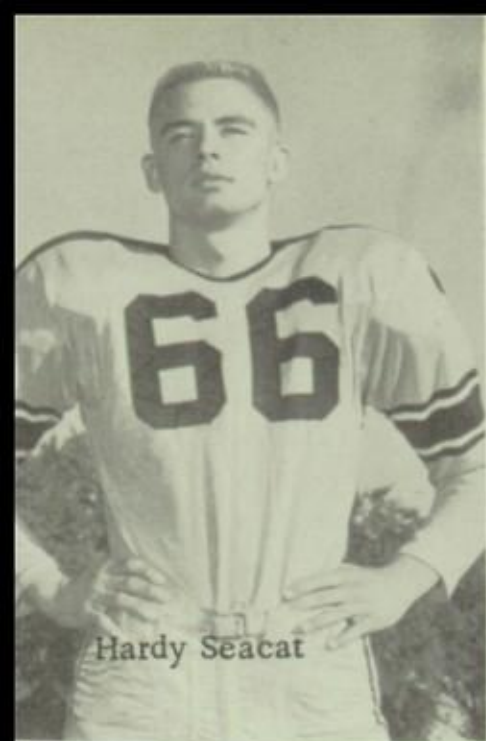

The experience was gained the hard way as the boys fought futilely while losing the first four contests. Then, these Railer gridmen "found them-selves" in the Homecoming clash with El Dorado and missed winning for their Queen by a minute and 20 seconds.

Following this 19-21 loss, the Railer crew made history by beating Wellington, to accomplish what no Newton eleven had been able to do in 14 seasons. It was the first time the Railroaders had beaten the Crusaders there in 28 years.

After a narrow loss to Wichita West, Coach Curtis Fischer's men gained their second victory by beating Derby, a team with but one previous loss on its record.

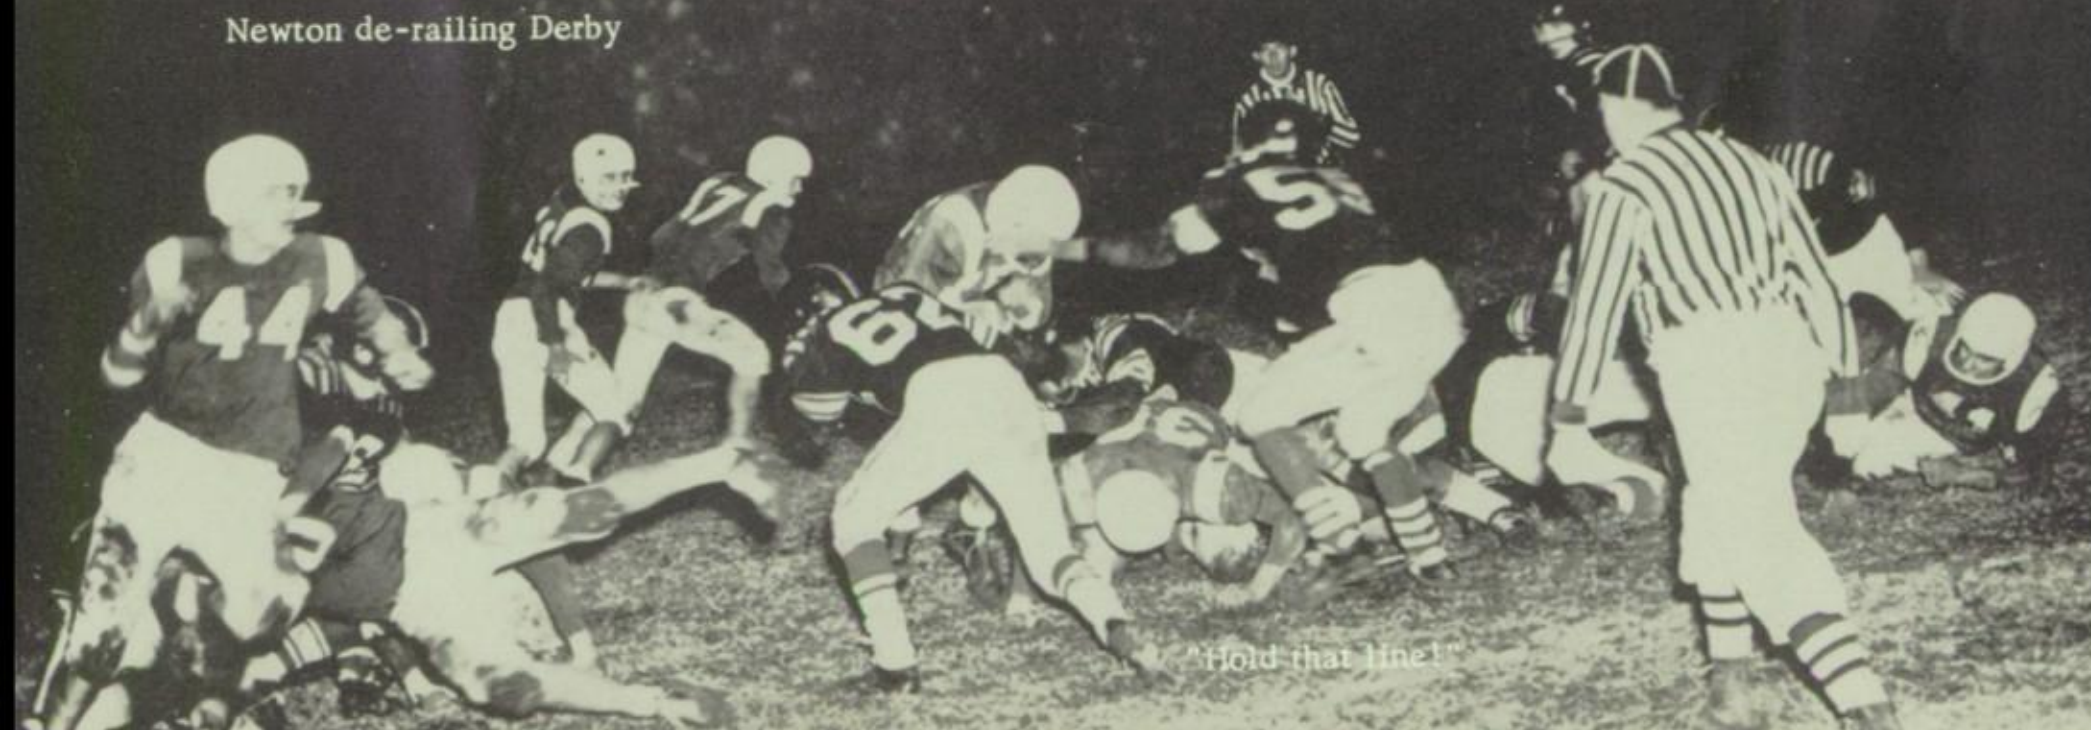

Returning lettermen this year seniors Casey Cook, Hardy Seacat, Jerry Walters, and juniors Maurice Leckington, Earl White, and Howard Schmidt. Others in the meager senior delegation were Elbert Cobbs, Jerry Crain, Bruce Day, and Dan Walters.

Despite the handicaps facing them, these Railroaders will be remembered as a team who came back after early reversals to play fine football.

Coach John Ravenscroft's 1957-158 Rail-roader basketball team was described by fans as being one which "had no right to win." Yet this squad, lacking height and with but two returning lettermen, won its first twelve games and held the ranking of "top team in the state" on sports writer polls for eight weeks during the season. The Railers won the Ark Valley championship with but one loss. For the season, they had 17 victories and 3 defeats, two of the losses by a single point. They were champions of the 4-team invitation-al tourney here in January. A towering Man-hattan team toppled the Railers by a single point in the finals of the regional tournament at Salina, to end these Railroaders' dream of joining other great Newton teams who have made a bid for the state tournament title. Senior Richard Deschner was named on the all-state team. Sophomore Vernon Smith mer-ited all-state honorable mention. Deschner and Smith were picked for the all-Ark Valley first five. Billy Townsend made the all-Valley second team, and Casey Cook received honor-able mention.
